Total, [illegible]

It is further recommended that each county shall convene at [illegible] on the [illegible] day of August, A. D. 1888, at [illegible] o'clock [illegible] m. for the purpose of electing delegates to said state convention.

For the committee,
JOHN A. MERRILL, Chairman.
J. W. D. STRAYER, Secretary.

The wife of the successor of Marshal von Moltke is an American woman. She married Count von Waldersee directly after the Austro-Prussian war. While a number of American women have married into rank and influence in France and Italy this is almost the only instance of an American woman holding a high position at the Prussian court. Prussia seldom has a cabinet without at least one minister with an American wife and sometimes this is the case with the premier. England stands to-day does not give this country a good representation. Randolph Churchill is the only man prominently mixed up who married an American. We miss the suite and [illegible] of the [illegible] of the [illegible] with the present [illegible] congress and will have a strong influence.

The [illegible] was [illegible] full of questions are discussed by the Denver papers is disgusting. If one paper starts any movement for the good of Denver the other papers [illegible] oppose it. Just now the [illegible] is stirred in the matter of [illegible] of Denver. The Republican spoke plainly on the subject and stated what probably is true. The other papers say that the Republican is not speaking the truth and even if what it says is true, it should be suppressed for the good of Denver. This latter position is that of cowardly papers and is usually the view of the narrow-minded element. Denver is [illegible] strong to [illegible] the truth if [illegible] public and the only [illegible] to suppress any publicity is the fact when they are doing to [illegible] the injury to Denver the question could be. People do not understand the [illegible] of a city when the press of the town is muzzled for fear and in demanding silence in the matter. They fear the cases where there is [illegible] to conceal [illegible] fact.

On Tuesday Central Park [illegible] with about 12,000 visitors. He made the journey to the [illegible] from Hamilton county, Ohio, and the other to [illegible] Indiana. In the address to the former he made the following [illegible]:

Nothing is more remarkable [illegible] than to see a foreigner visit this country. On the eve of his return, if he [illegible] he always [illegible] that where to [illegible] was asked whether he was not amazed at the greatness of the country. This student of law and government kindly but decidedly rebuked this too prevalent spirit of bulk and called our attention to the finer and higher things that he had observed in our American civilization. So to-day as I look into these intelligent faces my thoughts are turned away from those things that are accidental, that have their places in our census returns to those things which in [illegible] to the higher realm—the spiritual [illegible] [Applause.] I congratulate you not so much upon the rich farm lands of your county as upon your virtuous and happy homes. [Applause.] The home is the best [illegible] the best school of good citizenship. It is the great conservative and assimilative force. I should [illegible] for my country if American citizens were to be trained only in our schools, colleges or institutions. It is in the home that we first learn obedience and respect for law. Parental authority is the [illegible] of good government. It is to the [illegible] that we learn to love the mother that bore us that which is virtuous, consecrated and pure. [Applause.] I take more pride in the fact that the republican party has always been the friend and protector of the American home than in aught else. [Applause.] By the homestead [illegible] law it created more than a half million of homes. By the emancipation proclamation it converted a million cabins into homes. [Applause.] And it is still true to those principles that will preserve contentment and prosperity in our homes.

I greet you as men who have been [illegible] to such [illegible] call by your thoughts to the fact that the republican party has always been and can be trusted to [illegible] that will [illegible] virtue, intelligence and morality in the homes of our people. [Applause.] Now in view of the fact that I must greet other such [illegible] as this [illegible] "Home Club," I am [illegible] will be content with the [illegible] remarks, though they are altogether [illegible] for your cordial demonstration. [Cheers.]

The Genuine Yankee Type.

Opinions differ among students as to the effects of the fearful flood of immigration from Italy, Poland and such countries. It [illegible] to me that one might as well debate as to the [illegible] effect of a drink in the waters of the Mississippi river. Mr. Curtis' phrase, "the weapon of the life blood of the nation," [illegible] an argument. To understand [illegible] the [illegible] of [illegible] Boston two months [illegible] and the [illegible] State house [illegible] pictures of typical [illegible] Irish [illegible] into the streets and [illegible] for their kindred. In the [illegible] procession where [illegible] Tremont and Washington streets [illegible] may see [illegible] in the hour the [illegible] which are related to the [illegible] Yankee type. Physically good to [illegible] faces are [illegible] 50" [illegible] or you [illegible] made to feel ill at the real New Englander is not in the majority in New England. The life blood of this country is "watered." C. R. Rodell in [illegible] Press.

Go to the cricket match today by all means

Dr. Isaac Davis of Manitou filed his notarial bond yesterday.

Cricket to day commencing at 11 o'clock a. m. and ending at 5.15 p. m.

There was no meeting of the board of trade last night, the heavy rain preventing.

Mr. H. H. Stevens' new building on Tejon street will be occupied by the Vienna Cafe now located on Huerfano street.

The heavy rains of the last few days spotted quite a few brick at the Gossmen brick yards that were not ready for burning.

The funeral of Gertrude Hunter Schmidt will occur from the undertaking establishment of Hallett & Baker this afternoon.

Mr. D. P. Bristol, general superintendent of construction of the Western Union Telegraph company, arrived in the city last evening.

United Presbyterian services at the city hall Sabbath morning and evening, conducted by Rev. W. H. McCreery of Loveland, Colo.

The Rev. Mr. Black has consented to act as umpire for the Colorado Springs club in the cricket match to day with the Denver club.

Mr. Frank Dana, secretary of the real estate exchange of Denver, was in the city yesterday. He is a brother of City Marshal Dana of this city.

The GAZETTE'S night force enjoyed eating the biggest water melon of the season last night. It was a present from Mr. G. N. Swick, of Rocky Ford.

It was mail carrier Bob McGee's two boys who ran away and were found at Fountain instead of Ed Knapp's as reported in yesterday's GAZETTE.

The funeral of Mr. E. W. Purvis, who died of consumption on Thursday, occurred from the undertaking establishment of Hallett & Baker yesterday afternoon.

The report of the executive committee of the Mozart Choral society, printed in another column, will be pleasant reading to the many friends of that excellent musical association.

James H. Wallick's company, in "The Cattle King," is the next attraction at the opera house. The company is said to be a strong one and two trained horses are introduced in the play. The company plays at the Tabor Grand, in Denver, all of next week.

Louis Taylor, who several years ago killed Collie Prigmore at Eastonville, will be released from the penitentiary at Canon City today, having served out his sentence. The killing and trial was something of a sensation at the time and is well remembered by most of our citizens.

Persons who are thinking of going up the Pike's Peak toll road by way of Cascade will do well to notify Mr. J. E. Hundley of this city and thereby secure transportation in advance. Owing to the great number of persons who are daily going up it is often impossible for tourists to secure the best accomodations.

Messrs. Ericson & Gough have made very complete arrangements to furnish lunch to visitors at the cricket match to day. They will have on sale hot coffee and tea, milk, sandwiches, bread and butter, cakes and pies and ice cream, besides lemonade and mineral waters, so that no person need bother to fetch lunch along unless they wish to do so.

The grading camp, located north of the college, has a triangle which is used for summoning the workmen to meals. It sounds very much like the fire alarm on the Colorado hose house, and has been the cause of a number of the members of the company getting up rather hurriedly about five o'clock in the morning, of late, and rushing over to the hose cart in the belief that a fire alarm.

Captain William Saxton has received notice from Adjutant General West that Company A of this city has been awarded one of the sets of prize uniforms offered by the state for excellence in drilling. General West in his communication congratulates the company on its good standing and requests that the measurements be taken immediately that the company may be supplied with the uniforms as speedily as possible.

The rain storm of yesterday afternoon was the heaviest in this vicinity for years. The clouds gathered dark and threatening in the west early in the afternoon but it was not until four o'clock that it broke over this city. The heavy rain continued for nearly an hour and although the creeks in this vicinity were all greatly swollen yet no great damage has been reported. The Monument creek was higher than at any time since the flood of August 1, 1886. The bridge over Camp creek on the Colorado City is slightly damaged, the Midland suburban train due here at seven o'clock was delayed on account of an impaired bridge and a washout on the Rio Grande between this city and the Divide was reported.

The game of base ball yesterday afternoon was declared a draw game at the end of the fourth inning on account of the rain storm. Although the Zacatecas of Pueblo and the Denver Lone Stars claim they were not in any way a match for the Grays yesterday and their playing was among the poorest exhibitions of ball playing seen here this season. The Colorado Springs boys expected a hard game and so played their best, shutting out the visitors in four innings. The Grays were in better condition at present than ever before, and there will be some good ball playing next week, when the Solis club of Denver, who are now making a tour of the state, play two games at this place. The Colorado Springs boys played an errorless game. One of the features of the game was a magnificent catch by Lynch, at second base. Mann and Wilson, the new battery will remain in town the rest of the season and play with the Grays. At the end of the fourth inning the score stood eight to nothing in favor of the local club.

BEST LINE EAST.

The Union Pacific Ry is by all odds "the best Line East," on account of the fast time that is made and the reasonable hours for leaving Denver. Also the close connection that is made in Union depots with the trunk lines from Kansas City, Council Bluffs, St. Louis, and Chicago, reaching all the principal cities in the east. The U. P. Ry. is also the short line to the Pacific Coast, running two trains daily west and four trains to the east daily. Passengers via this line from Colorado Springs make close connections in Denver with the Union Pacific Ry. s-24-tf
